Terrific Explosion in Rubber Plant Near Detroit May Be Fatal to Many

ONE OF INJURED DYING; THIRTY AT WORK IN PLANT

Thousands Rushed to Scene of Fatality—Firemen Are Searching Ruins

DETROIT, May 15—Twelve are known to be dead from explosions which wrecked a one-story concrete plant of the Mexican Crude Rubber Company at Del Ray, near here. Ten are missing. Firemen and policemen are searching the ruins. Ten people were killed outright, two died at the hospital from injuries, and another is believed to be dying.

Police Commissioner Gillespie, who has personally directed the rescue work, says the company officials thus far have refused to state the number of men working at the time of the explosion, but it is rumored to be thirty.

The explosion shattered hundreds of windows. Thousands of persons immediately gathered and the police had a difficult time with the crowd. The explosion followed the ignition of the compound used in the manufacture of rubber tires.

OREGON'S STATE PRIMARIES ARE ON

125 Candidates Contesting for Nominations for State and District Officers

PORLTAND, Ore., May 15—Aspirants, 249 in number, including 192 Republicans, 43 Democrats and 14 Progressives, are contesting today for 96 national and state offices in statewide primaries. The Socialists and Prohibitionists are not participating, their candidates being named by conventions. Eight Republicans, 5 Democrats and two Progressives seek the gubernatorial nomination.

Political Activity Today

The campaign was particularly free from personalities, each candidate laying his claim to office on merit alone.

The United States senatorial contest created little interest as far as the primaries are concerned, as only one candidate from each party is on the ticket. They are: George E. Chamberlain, Democrat, incumbent; R. A. Booth, Republican, and William Hanley, Progressive.

PROSECUTION RESTS IN KILFOIL CASE

Lillian Palmer, Child Victim, Tells of Relations With Philip Kilfoil

LOS ANGELES, May 15—The prosecution in the case of Philip Kilfoil, charged with a statutory crime against Lillian Palmer, aged fifteen, rested today after the girl had completed her testimony and her mother had added her statement. The girl told of visits to Venice with Kilfoil and of trips to his home, and alleging improper relations.

In cross examination the defense attorneys tried futilely to make the child admit she told Kilfoil that she would tell the name of a boy responsible for her condition if her stepfather attempted to prove him responsible.

TWO MEMBERS OF NEW CURRENCY BOARD

W. G. P. Harding of Birmingham, Ala.
Harry A. Wheeler of Chicago

President Wilson has offered places on the Federal Currency Reserve Board, an institution which, in control of the national banks, will become one of the most powerful bodies in the nation, to five men more or less well known in commercial and financial circles. One, Richard Olney of Boston, former attorney general and secretary of state, has declined.

Since Mr. Olney was to have been chairman, that place may now fall to W. G. P. Harding of Birmingham. He is the president of a Birmingham bank—the largest bank between Washington and New Orleans. The influence of Oscar W. Underwood, majority leader in the House of Representatives, who is a very close friend, no doubt had something to do with the selection by the president.

Harry A. Wheeler of Chicago is president of the National Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Wheeler, it is said, is likely to decline the office, but until formal notice is received of his declination no other selection will be made.

But the Survey has been investigating that territory, and it finds that the vast deposits of sand and gravel underlying the region contain vast quantities of water. This is pumped to the surface by the huge windmills. Already there has been a rush of settlers to the valley, and the survey is issuing information to prospective homesteaders on request.

Mrs. Charles Becker, wife of the former police lieutenant, on trial for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the New York gambler, is a constant attendant at the courtroom. This is Becker's second trial. Four men who did the shooting, believed by the prosecution to have been ordered by him, have already been electrocuted. He won a new trial because of errors in his first trial.

Harry Allen Tells of Becker's Order for "Croaking" of Gambler Rosenthal

Rebel Aviators Dropping Bombs in Federal Ranks With Damaging Effect

VERA CRUZ, May 15—Late arrivals from Mexico City report that when they left the capital Wednesday federal troops were fighting the forces of Zapata at Tlalpan, twelve miles from the National Palace. Zapata's men had come up from the south unexpectedly and had taken possession of the summit of Mt. Ajusco. The federales who had gone out to drive them back were compelled to charge up a steep slope and were decidedly at a disadvantage. Zapata had no artillery and the federales could not use any. So far as they could learn, Zapata was simply making a demonstration of his power to get the capital and inspire terror among the inhabitants, rather than seeking decisive action. His men are all mounted and can withdraw without difficulty to the south when they have accomplished what they have set out to do.

Under cross-examination he admitted he had quarreled with Rosenthal six months before the killing, after fifteen years of friendship. He also admitted he did not try to stop the murder of his former friend. Under the questioning of the counsel for the defense he repeated the details of the murder conference at Harlem, describing Becker's alleged violent language in ordering the immediate "croaking" of Rosenthal.

FOREIGN MINE OWNERS MUST RETURN OR FORFEIT MINES

EL PASO, Texas, May 15—Unless American and other foreign mine owners return to the Parral district and reopen their properties within fifteen days, the mines will be seized and operated for the benefit of the Mexican people, according to a notice said to have been issued by General Luis Herrera, jefe de armas of the Parral district, word of which has reached mining men here.

It is estimated that there is from $50,000,000 to $80,000,000 of foreign capital invested in the Parral district. The mines produce a wide variety of ores, which are in constant demand at smelters throughout Mexico for fluxing purposes.

It is said here the foreign mine owners are unwilling to come back under present conditions and contemplate an appeal to the American State Department for protection for their properties.

The pair mounted the scaffold thirty seconds apart. There was no sound while the nooses were adjusted, except the low murmurings of the Lord's Prayer by a Presbyterian minister. As the words, "They will be done" sounded, the trap was sprung, and the bodies dropped down together.

PEACE MEDIATORS CALL ON WILSON FORMALLY

President Expresses Hope They Will Find Full Solution of Mexican Trouble

WASHINGTON, May 15—American Consul John Silliman at Saltillo is still missing today despite the report that he is released, and the administration is admittedly worried. Had the story of Silliman's release been true he would have arrived in Mexico City before today. The Silliman affair coupled with the probable death of Private Parks at Vera Cruz, and the fact that Photographer Sutton of the Washington Post and another Washington correspondent named Doster is still missing in Mexico City is causing much tension of feeling.

The mediation conference expect to settle down to work before Monday night. The American envoys have been instructed to entertain no proposition not including the elimination of Huerta. A report is current today that it has been decided to permit the rebels to import arms through Tamtoc.

It is understood that no action has yet been taken in the case of Dr. Edward Ryan, the American consular agent and Red Cross official at Zacatecas, who was arrested there, being released later on American demand but only after he had signed a pledge not to reveal his experiences in captivity. Dr. Ryan on his arrival refused to say more than that he was subjected to serious indignities. It is believed the State Department will hold that a pledge entered under such conditions is not binding and will attempt to force Ryan to tell his story.

The report was revived again today that the rebels will be represented at the conference, and this is one of the reasons for the delay. Another rumored reason was that a difference of opinion exists among the envoys and time is necessary for adjustment. Bryan gave the cabinet notice of the postponement.

MEETING OF MEDIATORS PUT OFF TILL WEDNESDAY

RUSSIA CRUSHES EDUCATION IN POLAND

Primary Schools Decrease; Law and Order Unknown; Outrages Are Legion

LONDON, May 14.—There are fewer primary schools in Russian Poland than there were at the beginning of the sixteenth century," says a statement issued today by the Poland Polish Bureau here on the authority of the National Council of Poland, dealing with conditions in that country for which the Russian government is held responsible.

"For two million children of school age there are only 4316 available schools, according to the latest census, and these are able to accommodate only 17.4 per cent of the children," declares the statement. "The Russian government not only looks with disfavor upon primary education in Poland, but actually does all in its power to prevent and hinder its development. Educational societies and associations are suppressed as soon as formed, as was the 'Maciorz Polska,' which established, during the nine months of its existence, more than 900 primary schools. Only recently the government suppressed a great society for scientific education with a membership of tens of thousands. Numbers of well intentioned persons have been imprisoned for no greater offense than that of teaching the rudiments of the Polish language and religion to such few children as they could gather around them."

"The fate of Polish journalists is no better. If they dare to write on the most commonplace and non-political questions or even report speeches made by Polish deputies in the Duma, they are fined or sent to prison. More than 100 such cases were reported in the past year.

"In spite of its policy of strict surveillance and rigid repression, the Russian government has shown itself either unwilling or unable to maintain even the semblance of law and order in Poland. No less than 3000 outrages—in many cases murders—were committed by bandits in 1913, and rarely were the culprits caught or punished. The fearful prevalence of crime in this country may be understood when it is explained that the police (as in the case of Rycaj, the chief of the bandit) are often in league with the criminals, who thus receive the protection instead of the punishment of the law.

"The taxes imposed in Poland are generally 12 per cent higher than in the rest of the Russian Empire, and during the past year the imperial treasury profited to the extent of $25,000,000 by taxes wrung from the Poles, poor and rich alike. Improvements in national services, as in national conditions, are unknown in Poland, and although Russia raises heavy loans abroad for the construction of railways in her own industrial regions, permission is refused to the Poles to build a new railway in their own country.

"A law has been passed by the Imperial Duma which purports to establish a form of municipal autonomy in Poland, but entirely excludes the use of the Polish language in council meeting. To realize the injustice of this act it must be understood that the population of the kingdom of Poland, with the exception of the Jews, is wholly Polish, and that in the provincial towns there are an enormous number of Poles who know no other tongue than their own."

PAUPER CLAIMS TO BE DESCENDANT OF ROYALTY

LONDON, May 15.—A pauper of

He declares that his grandmother was "Princess Lavinia" of Cumberland, blood.

The Cumberland claim was first made in 1817, when a Mrs. Olive Serres

House of Commons, but her claim was rejected, and she died in 1834. Her

THEY WERE WEDDED IN LOS ANGELES

Miss Iva Brown Becomes Wife of Wintersburg Man—Wedding Was Quiet One

Miss Iva Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ives Brown, Mitchell avenue, Tustin, was married on Wednesday morning to Mordant Heil, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Heil of Wintersburg, Cal. They were quietly married in Los Angeles and will spend about a week seeing the points of interest about Los Angeles, and then go to Wintersburg, where they will make their future home.

The bride, as Miss Iva Brown, was the recipient last Monday night in Tustin of a charming courtesy in the way of a shower at which Miss Grace McCarthy was hostess. The guests were members of the J.U.G. Club and other friends. The shower was a miscellaneous one and many useful and beautiful gifts were presented to the then bride-to-be.

Amusing games and music made the evening a very pleasant one, and later in the evening light refreshments were served.

Those present were: Misses Jessie and Carrie Matthews, Inez Phinney, Lena Ebel, Marie Deardorff, Mattie Denham, Ruth Morgan, Edna Brown and Grace McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Day, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ebel, Mrs. Holmes and Messrs. Geo. Brown and Dan Smith.

PRIZE WINNERS IN AN ESSAY CONTEST

Former Tustin School Pupils
Are Victors in Brawley
W.C.T.U. Competition

Two former Tustin school pupils, Miss Ethel Thompson and Arthur Best, won prizes offered by the county W.C.T.U. at Brawley, Imperial Valley for essays written by pupils of the seventh and eighth grades and the first year in high school. The winners in the local unions become competitors for the county prizes, and those in the county for the state prizes.

This year Brawley boys and girls carried off both local and county prizes for all three grades. These were won by Arthur Best, seventh grade, Ben Lefner of the eighth and Miss Ethel Thompson, a freshman in the Brawley Union High.

The subject of the papers was: "Alcohol and the Human Body." The essays have been sent to Sacramento to compete with those from the other counties of the state.

Tustin is always glad to know of the success of former residents, and especially of those who have attended the Tustin schools. The young prize winners are congratulated by their Tustin friends.

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush
Kidneys if Bladder
Bothers You

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, clog up, and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; thus to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delicate effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Advertisement.

of Wintersburg Man—Wedding Was Quiet One

Miss Iva Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ives Brown, Mitchell avenue, Tustin, was married on Wednesday morning to Mordant Heil, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Heil of Wintersburg, Cal. They were quietly married in Los Angeles and will spend about a week seeing the points of interest about Los Angeles, and then go to Wintersburg, where they will make their future home.

The bride, as Miss Iva Brown, was the recipient last Monday night in Tustin of a charming courtesy in the way of a shower at which Miss Grace McCarthy was hostess. The guests were members of the J.U.G. Club and other friends. The shower was a miscellaneous one and many useful and beautiful gifts were presented to the then bride-to-be.

Amusing games and music made the evening a very pleasant one, and later in the evening light refreshments were served.

Those present were: Misses Jessie and Carrie Matthews, Inez Phinney, Lena Ebel, Marie Deardorff, Mattie Denham, Ruth Morgan, Edna Brown and Grace McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Day, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ebel, Mrs. Holmes and Messrs. Geo. Brown and Dan Smith.

EDITORIAL*DOES ORANGE GROWING PAY?

One of the first questions asked by observing visitors to California is, "Does it pay to grow oranges?" When they see for the first time miles and miles of orange trees loaded with the golden fruit and think of the prices paid for them at retail in the East, it seems "easy money" to them and they begin to wonder that they never knew it before.

Pretty soon they hear one after another say, "We haven't realized anything on our oranges for two years."

Now, between this first question asked and the statement quoted above lies the whole story of orange growing in California.

Historians say that the first orange trees were planted in California at the San Gabriel Mission in 1804. The first commercial venture in orange culture on the coast was in 1841 when Wm. Wolfskill set out two acres to oranges. The industry has grown until now 200,000 acres are planted to citrus trees, 80 per cent of which are oranges and 20 per cent lemons. An investment of approximately $200,000,000 is represented in this industry, and 150,000 people depend on it directly for a livelihood.

The fact that people who have lived in California longest are investing in land which has been proven the best for citrus growing, upon which they can plant a young grove, or upon which is a full bearing grove at what seems to the newcomer, fabulously high prices, goes to prove that orange growing pays.

Another convincing argument in the affirmative is a comparison between the homes of citrus growers and those of other agricultural pursuits in this or any other state.

The following quotation is from one who has made orange growing pay:

"If you have a location where you have the right kind of soil, where your water conditions are certain and where the relative drainage and foot-hill protection is such that you are free of damaging winds and frosts, and if you secure and plant only pedigree trees and give them the proper care, then citrus business will pay, in fact does pay the largest returns on the investment, and requires as little scientific knowledge to make a success as anything in the farming line anywhere."

And, "Judged by achievements, there is no equally large group of people in the whole of the United States that can boast of a higher average intelligence, of deeper insight, of greater business acumen and culture than the citrus growers of California."

AN ESSAY CONTEST

Former Tustin School Pupils
Are Victors in Brawley
W.C.T.U. Competition

Two former Tustin school pupils, Miss Ethel Thompson and Arthur Best, won prizes offered by the county W.C.T.U. at Brawley, Imperial Valley for essays written by pupils of the seventh and eighth grades and the first year in high school. The winners in the local unions become competitors for the county prizes, and those in the county for the state prizes.

This year Brawley boys and girls carried off both local and county prizes for all three grades. These were won by Arthur Best, seventh grade, Ben Lefner of the eighth and Miss Ethel Thompson, a freshman in the Brawley Union High.

The subject of the papers was: "Alcohol and the Human Body." The essays have been sent to Sacramento to compete with those from the other counties of the state.

Tustin is always glad to know of the success of former residents, and especially of those who have attended the Tustin schools. The young prize winners are congratulated by their Tustin friends.

SOCIETY AND CLUBS*Coreopsis Club

The members of the Coreopsis Club held their meeting Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Ed. Smith. The ladies enjoyed a very pleasant social afternoon. The time was employed with conversation and embroidery. Those present were Mesdames F. H. Howes, Chas. Lambert, Roy Runnels, Ann Schwartz, C. O. Arzt, Wilson and Hart, besides the hostess and Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Reid of Santa Ana.

Delicious refreshments of sandwiches, fruit salad, coffee and cake were served.

A trip to Long Beach

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Hubbard drove over to Long Beach Tuesday and were delightfully entertained by friends there. They were driven over the city in a luxurious automobile to see the beautiful homes and all points of interest there.

Tustin Twelve

The meeting of the Tustin Twelve with Mrs. Chas. Johnson Tuesday afternoon in Santa Ana was an especially enjoyable one.

Mrs. Johnson's home is roomy and delightfully adapted to social gatherings and was made unusually charming by decorations of the handsome bougainvillea. Fancy work and lively conversation go hand in hand at these club meetings. Several musical numbers were beautifully played by Mrs. Fred Chapman, and there were songs by Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. J. C. Stearns.

Later in the afternoon the ladies were invited to the dining room, and seated at a snowy table adorned with beautiful flowers and a delicious luncheon was served.

The Tustin members present were Mesdames Ellis Smith, J. C. Stearns, Fred Moorhead, E. J. Cranston, Arthur Hoefer, C. O. Arzt, Geo. Pollard, J. S. House, Fred Poole and Albert Fuller. The other guests were Mrs. Fred Chapman, Mrs. A. H. Gorruge of Riverside, Mrs. Emma Chapman, Mrs. T. M. Purdom, Mrs. S. M. Hill and Mrs. Frank McElree.

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush
Kidneys if Bladder
Bothers You

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

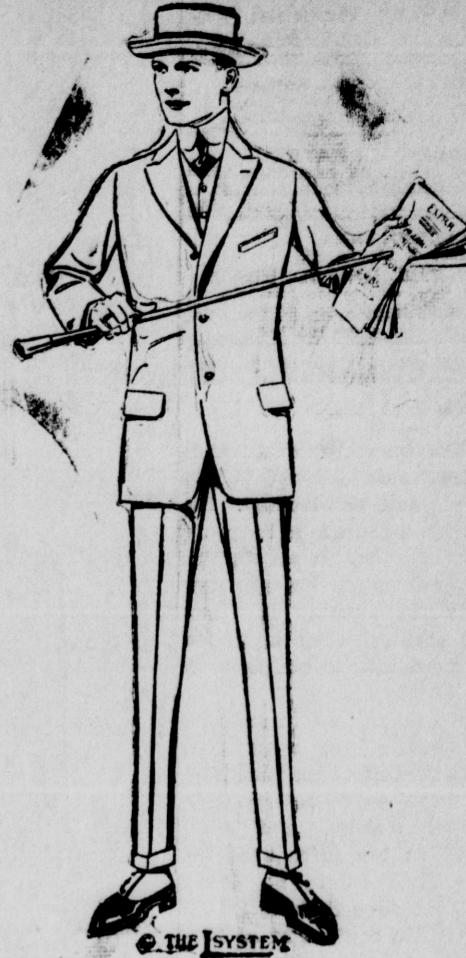

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Advertisement.

ABSENTEE OWNERSHIP OF INDUSTRIES

In the old time the owner of a manufacturing plant usually lived in the town where the mill was located. He attended the same church or lodge as many of his employees, he sat on the grand stand and watched them play ball Saturday afternoon. If they "had a kick coming" they knew he would hear them talk it out face to face in the office.

The Colorado labor war, in its relation to the Rockefellers, is an illustration of the kind of thing that happens when large stockholders live hundreds of miles away, and visit their property at too infrequent intervals. The Rockefellers no doubt believe they have done their full duty by providing a fine equipment of hospitals, clubs, and bath rooms. The workmen, however, value personal touch more than the finest social outfit that money can buy. It often seems as if they valued it quite as much as wages.

In these days of widespread ownership in corporations, the idyllic conditions once prevailing can not return. Still, much more could be done by large stockholding interests to maintain some kind of a personal tie with their employees. It needs to be repeated over and over again that no business enterprise can permanently prosper as long as there exists hatred or ill feeling between employer and employee. There can not be efficient operation on a basis of war.

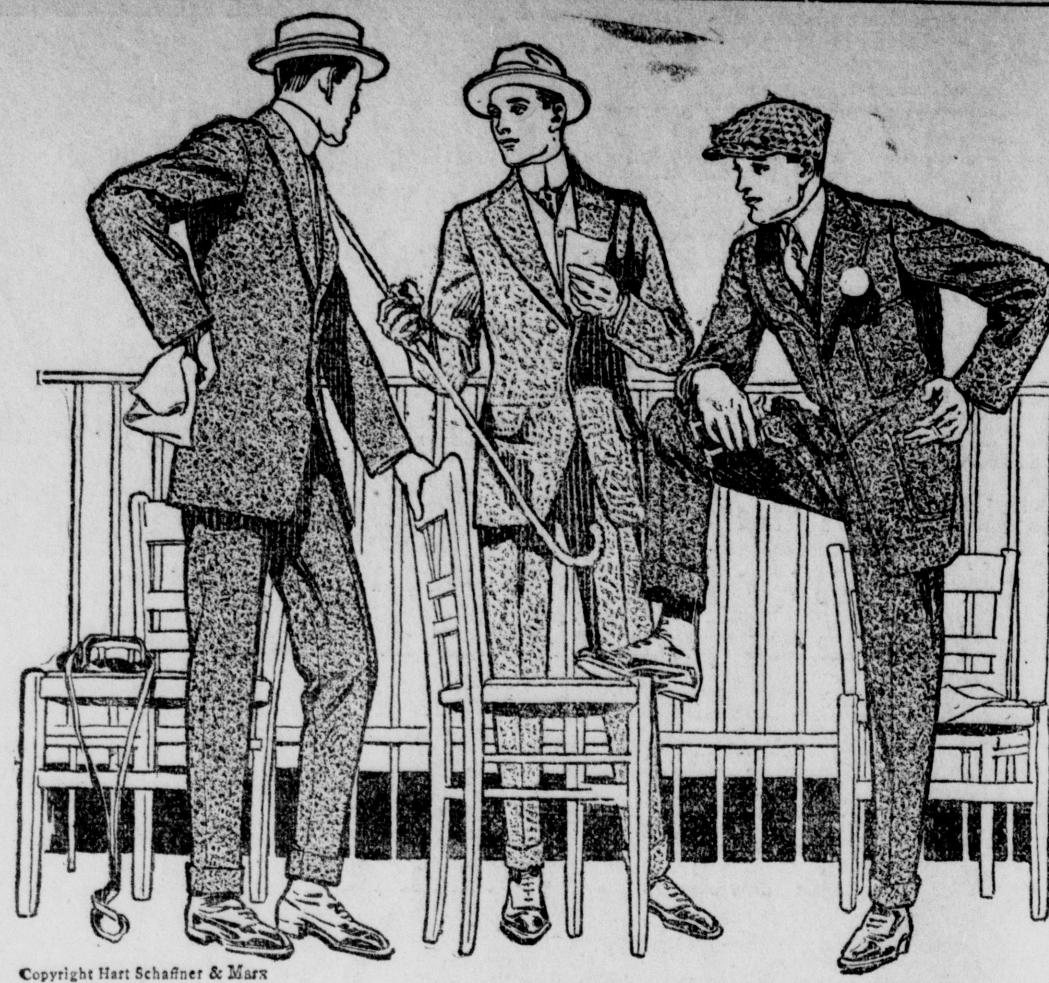

Many employers of labor might, with very slight inconvenience to themselves, live in the community where their plants are located. Their help in paying taxes and in promoting local interests would frequently win good will where estrangement now exists.

Even if they cannot live in the places where their mills are located, it would seem good business policy to visit these places very frequently and make themselves accessible. Much of the labor friction could be obviated by personal contact.

COMFORT IN DRESS

The fashion note has come from Europe that the day of freak dress for women is over, and that "men may hereafter see their own wives on the street without blushing." Even though we out here on the edge of the world have had the extreme largely diluted, so to speak, the relief from the abnormalities of the last few years will be decisive.

Yet it is not likely that with the swing back through the styles, there will be any reversion to the other extreme of the heavy padded and layered dresses of twenty years or more ago. With what we have called immodesty has been granted something else, freedom—and freedom, once tasted, is hard to give up. Modesty at best is three-fourths a matter of custom. Nothing can make a peek-a-boo gown modest, but custom could soon qualify straight "pants" for feminine attire. So, it is not likely that women, having had the custom of heavily weighted skirts once broken, can ever be brought back to a worship of them

YOU'RE well dressed or not, according to the style of your clothes; you'll agree with that. It is not always easy to pick the best style, however, unless you follow fashion pretty closely.

Fine Clothes

You haven't a chance of being disappointed. Special artist-designers give their whole time and thought to young men's clothes; others devote their time to clothes for older men; still others develop models for men unusual in figure. So every man has been provided for by a specialist in design.

Another thing—Nothing but all wool fabrics will make suits like the ones pictured here. Hart Schaffner & Marx in your suit means "all-wool"—that means wear and fine quality throughout the life of your suit.

Certainly comfort is becoming more and more a feature of all civilized clothing, as it was in the beginning the reason for all clothing. This is seen more especially in the raiment of men. With the sway of fashion back and forth, the extreme that is most comfortable is quickly seized, and with loss of fashion is never quite abandoned. That is the reason why Dame Fashion has never, in her most daring moments, attempted to beset mankind. The corset is still sacred to the "ladies of both sexes."

AN APPRECIATION OF REGISTER EDITORIAL

Editor Register:—Who among the many readers of the Register overlooked that splendid article headed, "If a Man Die, Shall He Live Again?" in the issue of Wednesday, May 13, from the pen of Editor J. P. Baumgartner, who at the present time is enjoying a brief respite from his arduous duties, amid scenes of his early life in Missouri, which apparently deeply stirred his emotions and prompted the writing of this "heart-throb"—touching as it does on a subject so vital to all. The giving of such expression, so beautiful and simple, awakens the tenderest feeling for humanity. Under such circumstances, keenly retrospective, one can not but feel unconsciously drawn backward to the old familiar scenes of childhood. "Backward, turn backward, oh, time in thy flight. Make me a child again, just for tonight," etc.

After the reading and absorbing of this touching word picture couched in language unmistakable in its purport, one can not but feel the better for having lived, though many no doubt suffering deeply with various trials, as the uplift and cheer offered gives courage to the weakest.

The quoted portion of the late Senator Bob Taylor of Tennessee has long been recognized as a choice literary classic, and fits in admirably.

Such articles as these appearing in the daily press, which goes far in wielding an all-powerful prestige in the moulding of public opinion, does noble work in the upbuilding of character, causing the thoughtless to think—awake to the indisputable fact that there is life beyond the grave.

OHIO HOUSEWIVES ARE NOW BUYING BY WEIGHT

COLUMBUS, May 15.—Ohio housewives now are assured of getting just what they pay for. Beginning today the State Agricultural Commission will enforce the law requiring that all packages of food must be marked with accurate net weights. Violators will be prosecuted. The greatest abuse, state officials say, is in the packing of lard. A weight is stamped upon the can, but it does not specify whether it is net or gross. Retailers have endorsed the law. They have written Commissioner Strode telling him that sales by weight are far more satisfactory than by measure. They declare customers are better satisfied and clerks save time.

In the old time the owner of a manufacturing plant usually lived in the town where the mill was located. He attended the same church or lodge as many of his employees, he sat on the grand stand and watched them play ball Saturday afternoon. If they "had a kick coming" they knew he would hear them talk it out face to face in the office.

The Colorado labor war, in its relation to the Rockefellers, is an illustration of the kind of thing that happens when large stockholders live hundreds of miles away, and visit their property at too infrequent intervals. The Rockefellers no doubt believe they have done their full duty by providing a fine equipment of hospitals, clubs, and bath rooms. The workmen, however, value personal touch more than the finest social outfit that money can buy. It often seems as if they valued it quite as much as wages.

In these days of widespread ownership in corporations, the idyllic conditions once prevailing can not return. Still, much more could be done by large stockholding interests to maintain some kind of a personal tie with their employees. It needs to be repeated over and over again that no business enterprise can permanently prosper as long as there exists hatred or ill feeling between employer and employee. There can not be efficient operation on a basis of war.

Many employers of labor might, with very slight inconvenience to themselves, live in the community where their plants are located. Their help in paying taxes and in promoting local interests would frequently win good will where estrangement now exists.

Even if they cannot live in the places where their mills are located, it would seem good business policy to visit these places very frequently and make themselves accessible. Much of the labor friction could be obviated by personal contact.

COMFORT IN DRESS

The fashion note has come from Europe that the day of freak dress for women is over, and that "men may hereafter see their own wives on the street without blushing." Even though we out here on the edge of the world have had the extreme largely diluted, so to speak, the relief from the abnormalities of the last few years will be decisive.

Yet it is not likely that with the swing back through the styles, there will be any reversion to the other extreme of the heavy padded and layered dresses of twenty years or more ago. With what we have called immodesty has been granted something else, freedom—and freedom, once tasted, is hard to give up. Modesty at best is three-fourths a matter of custom. Nothing can make a peek-a-boo gown modest, but custom could soon qualify straight "pants" for feminine attire. So, it is not likely that women, having had the custom of heavily weighted skirts once broken, can ever be brought back to a worship of them as necessary to feminine modesty.

Certainly comfort is becoming more and more a feature of all civilized clothing, as it was in the beginning the reason for all clothing. This is seen more especially in the raiment of men. With the sway of fashion back and forth, the extreme that is most comfortable is quickly seized, and with loss of fashion is never quite abandoned. That is the reason why Dame Fashion has never, in her most daring moments, attempted to be-convert mankind. The corset is still sacred to the "ladies of both sexes."

AN APPRECIATION OF REGISTER EDITORIAL

Editor Register—Who among the many readers of the Register overlooked that splendid article headed, "A Man Die, Shall He Live Again?" in the issue of Wednesday, May 13, from the pen of Editor J. P. Baumgartner, who at the present time is enjoying a brief respite from his arduous duties, amid scenes of his early life in Missouri, which apparently deeply stirred his emotions and prompted the writing of this "heart throb"—touching as it does on a subject so vital to all. The giving of such expression, so beautiful and simple, awakens the tenderest feeling for humanity. Under such circumstances, keenly retrospective, one can not but feel unconsciously drawn backward to the old familiar scenes of childhood. "Backward, turn backward, oh, time in thy flight. Make me a child again, just for tonight," etc.

After the reading and absorbing of this touching word picture couched in language unmistakable in its purpose, one can not but feel the better for having lived, though many no doubt suffering deeply with various trials, as the uplift and cheer offered gives courage to the weakest.

The quoted oration of the late Senator Bob Taylor of Tennessee has long been recognized as a choice literary classic, and fits in admirably.

Such articles as these appearing in the daily press, which goes far in wielding an all-powerful prestige in the moulding of public opinion, does noble work in the upbuilding of character, causing the thoughtless to think—awake to the indisputable fact that there is life beyond the grave.

Respectfully submitted,

OHIO HOUSEWIVES ARE NOW BUYING BY WEIGHT

COLUMBUS, May 15.—Ohio housewives are now assured of getting just what they pay for. Beginning today the State Agricultural Commission will enforce the law requiring that all packages of food must be marked with accurate net weights. Violators will be prosecuted. The greatest abuse, state officials say, is in the packing of lard. A weight is stamped upon the can, but it does not specify whether it is net or gross. Retailers have endorsed the law. They have written Commissioner Strode telling him that sales by weight are far more satisfactory than by measure. They declare customers are better satisfied and clerks save time.

ANNIVERSARY SOCIAL

Delhi Sunday School Observes Founding Day—100 Join in Successful Event

The anniversary social held on Wednesday night in Otto's Hall, at which about one hundred people were present, proved a decided success.

An excellent program was provided and carried out without a hitch. A song, "Stepping Anywhere," by the audience followed by prayer by the Rev. Mr. Wood, opened the proceedings. Next came Miss Ritner with her "Retrospect of the Year's Work," which was both interesting and instructive.

Mr. Paul Stevens proved the need and benefit of Sunday schools. He showed how the work of the Sunday school is an aid to the prevention of crime. Superior Judge Z. B. West spoke forcibly on the need of a place of worship and supported Mr. Stevens' contention by stating that no criminal ever learned his evil habits in a Sunday school or church.

Mr. Brown made a great hit with the boys, telling them interesting stories and urging them to attend Sunday school, not as a favor to anyone, but for the benefits they themselves would obtain. He also bade them do a favor to other boys by bringing them under the benefit of Sunday school influences. The speeches were interspersed by class songs and vocal duets.

Refreshments were served at the end of the program, after which Mr. Van Cleve voted thanks to the ladies. The national anthem, "America," was sung with enthusiasm. Mr. Van Cleve offered a benediction and the meeting closed.

It is interesting to know that the Sunday school has so far been a financial success, the treasurer's books showing a balance of over $26, of which $20 is in the Farmers' & Merchants' National Bank, forming a nucleus for a church building fund.

Thimble Club Met

The West End Thimble Club was very pleasantly entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. A. McGowan, 140 East Santa Clara avenue. Notwithstanding the cloudy weather, a large number of the club ladies were in attendance, and three visitors gave added pleasure to the social hours.

The ladies were entertained with readings and conversation as they busied themselves with beautiful fancy work. Very delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. An invitation to meet with Mrs. Nellie Young in the next fortnight was graciously given.

AMUSEMENTS

The Tango at Clune's

The "real thing" in tango dancing is now to be seen presented by the Tyrrells at Clune's for the last half of this week's program. It is a superb presentation. It shows that dancing the tango requires an extraordinary amount of skill, and is very pretty if danced properly. All in Santa Ana who are at all interested in high-class dancing should avail themselves of this opportunity of seeing these two artists dance the much-talked-of new steps.

This evening and tomorrow's matinee will be the last chances to see the sixth installment of the "Adventures of Katilyn." The picture is chock full of thrills and one wonders when Katilyn's persecutor, Prince Umballah, will cease his villainy.

Other vaudeville numbers and pictures make up a splendid program this week.

These superb pictures will be shown at Clune's only, Saturday, May 16:

"The Girl From Prosperity" (Vitagraph). The plot of this two-reel offering is not only ably developed, but the portrayal of the leading role by Billy Quirk is edifying and distinctive. Prosperity is a country town wherein the character, Billy, was born and raised. He has longings for greater thought, however, and leaving his girl in Prosperity, decides to try his luck in the city. He tries and is glad eventually to get back to the town that spells Prosperity. It is a splendid comedy and well acted and visualized.

"Fast Freight 3205" (Kalem). As the caption implies, this is a railroad picture concerning two telegraph operators in charge of small stations in the west. One is stricken with illness and the other, gossiping with the crew of the fast freight almost fails in getting the frantic calls to hold the freight to avert a collision. The sick operator's wife is the heroine that saves the situation. A realistic fire scene is incidental. A very good and attractive number.

"The Restless Woman" (Biograph). The plot material in this picture, which shows how an actress marries a country man and later returns to her art, is very familiar. The production is so well handled and nicely photographed that it seems fresh and interesting. It gives the unromantic side of the life of an actress and the closing scenes, where she returns to another season.

Mrs. Pembroke E. Waugh went to Los Angeles this morning for a several days visit with her sisters, Mrs. Weller Liebler and Miss Daisy Roberts, at Ramona Park.

T. E. Stephenson spent today in Los Angeles. While there he attended a Forestry Board meeting.

W. L. Deimling was a business visitor to Los Angeles this forenoon.

Mrs. Geo. Briggs spent today in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Dunnavan went to Los Angeles today.

Messrs. Roland and Hugh Roberts, spending the latter part of the winter here, have returned from a two days' visit at Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Balderston are at the Hotel Manx, San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Armstrong of Old Newport, left yesterday afternoon for a visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Harry A. Tedford, at Wilton, Glenn county, California.

Mrs. Edward Pomeroy, who spent the winter in Santa Ana at 726 South Broadway, has returned to her home in Pittsfield, Mass. She greatly enjoyed the winter here, and it is hoped by her son, E. V. S. Pomeroy, and his wife, that she will return to Santa Ana for another season.

William West portrays the title role in a masterly manner, and Bessie Learn as his daughter is graciously sweet. The acting on the part of all the cast is adequate. A picture that is above the average.

—At the Lyric

"Miss Nobody From Nowhere," a very pretty two-part drama, featuring Ethel Grandin, is the top-notchet at the Lyric today, which is creating considerable interest as a drama of more than ordinary interest. It is a play to strike deep into the interest of everyone who witnesses it—one that makes you think, and yet one that leaves a pleasant taste in your mouth—pleasant recollection.

Two up-to-date comedies are also presented and it is a program of merit and the price of admission is five cents.

MEX BANDITS BEAT HIS SON

Former Resident of Placentia Tells of Terrors of Durango Ranch

Anaheim Gazette: Bringing with him stories of indignities heaped upon him by Mexicans, of the despoliation of his herds and flocks by Villa's men, and criticizing the United States government for its lack of protection to American citizens in the southern republic, Camille Allee and his four children returned some days ago from Durango to their former home in Placentia, after an absence of four years. He was compelled to hide for a month behind rocks in a creek a mile away from his home, while Mexicans hunted him for his life. Food was sent to him by his housekeeper at night, and after enduring the hardships of a four weeks' siege, he returned to his home, which he found had been looted of almost its entire contents. His son, Camille, aged 14, who was whipped by the bandits because he refused to divulge his father's hiding place, was abducted and held four days for a ransom. The boy had hidden with his father in the creek, and his whereabouts were divulged by two peons.

GOVERNMENT LIFE INSURANCE IN ITALY

ROME, May 15.—Italy's governmental monopoly of life insurance, created at the instance of the Socialists in Parliament, has just completed its first year of business. Sundays included, for seven months and with no immediate prospects of being able to go back to the seven-hour day. Over $220,000,000 worth of business has been done during the year, including that taken over at the beginning from twenty-four private companies which the government monopoly put out of business.

Anaheim Gazette: Bringing with him stories of indignities heaped upon him by Mexicans, of the desolation of his herds and flocks by Villa's men, and criticizing the United States government for its lack of protection to American citizens in the southern republic, Camille Allec and his four children returned some days ago from Durango to their former home in Placentia, after an absence of four years. employed upon the Allec ranch, who were flogged and threatened with death until they informed the bandits of his hiding place. The boy was taken captive, and when he steadfastly refused to tell them of his father's hiding place, was cruelly whipped and taken hostage to a ranch 40 miles away, where he was held four days. Two Mexicans among the bandits who knew Allec, interceded for the lad, and asked their commanding officer to release him. When this was refused, the lad made his escape, and traveled all day and late into the evening before reaching his home. Previous to this experience a band of 1500 Villa bandits rode up to the Allec ranch and in one afternoon killed 700 sheep. They carried the carcasses of a mile where they camped for the night. The next day they moved on, taking with them what remained of the mutton. At various other times Villa's men appeared at the ranch and took in all 200 head of sheep. Mr. Allec also lost 29 head of cattle together with several horses and mules. On his refugee train coming from Durango to El Paso was Jonathan Kraemer, formerly a well known resident of Placentia, and a brother of Samuel and Benjamin Kraemer of that section. Mr. Kraemer's ranch was despoiled of many head of cattle and sheep, and his watch and money taken. The bandits found $100 in Kraemer's house, which is situated a short distance from the Allec home. He had in his pocket $65 which was also stolen from him. Mr. Kraemer went to Kansas to confer with his associate owners in his ranch. Mr. Allec will probably return to Durango to care for his 2000 sheep yet remaining on the ranch and his other property, which he left in charge of a peon.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

With the increasing receipts of deciduous fruits the Los Angeles produce market is daily assuming a lively aspect. Soon all varieties will be received in quantities. Loquats and cherries are now meeting with an active demand, and while the season for the former has just about touched its height, cherries are only now beginning to come in freely. The crop this year is larger than usual. The first apricots and figs are putting in an appearance. Apricots bring around $1.50 a crate and $2.50 a lug. While still small, the fruit is steadily improving in quality. A few figs are occasionally received from Indio and bring a fancy price. Peaches, plums and grapes are due soon.

Grapefruit and navel oranges advanced a little yesterday. Cherries were cheaper. Berries of all kinds were a little weaker. A few cantaloupes are received; "ponics" bring $5 to $5.50 a crate. Each crate contains something over fifty melons. Pears are being cleaned up. Bananas have been firmer the past day or two, but prices are low, owing to the fact that there is very keen competition which frequently approximate a price war.

Outdoor cucumbers were somewhat cheaper. Green corn again was quoted at about 50 cents a dozen although some fancy specimens brought as high as 75 cents.

Cage-count eggs declined 1 cent in sympathy with  $\frac{1}{2}$ -cent drop in the northern market. The general tone locally is firm, owing to the shortage of eastern storage stock. This shortage will be more or less offset, it is hoped, by the supply of Chinese eggs which has gone into storage.

Butter was steady in Los Angeles, as well as at San Francisco. California cheese advanced  $\frac{1}{2}$  cent in the northern market, causing a firmer feeling here.

REFORESTATION COMMITTEE MEETING

Tri-Counties Gathering at Huntington Beach Proved Success

The third annual meeting of the Tri-Counties Reforestation Committee was held yesterday at Huntington Beach, representatives from Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino counties being present, as well as engineers and other experts. A number of the members, including A. S. Bradford, were met at Placentia by Samuel Kraemer, D. B. Newell, Charles Newell and others.

The party went by automobile over the Chapman avenue boulevard to Fullerton, thence to Anaheim over the County Highway to Orange, McPherson, thence south to Tustin and to Santa Ana where the party was met by other members of the committee. From Santa Ana the party went to Huntington Beach on the new county highway.

Dinner was had at the Huntington Inn. Covers were laid for forty. Entertainment was furnished by the Glee Clubs of the Huntington Beach High School. Choruses were rendered by the boys and girls of the school.

County Highway Commissioners from Orange, San Bernardino and Riverside counties were present, as well as Supervisors. Among the engineers were Engineer J. W. Reagan and F. H. Olmstead, of the board of engineers and flood control of Los Angeles county.

The most interesting of the papers read before the meeting was that of Engineer Pedley. Mr. Pedley's paper carried conviction and was replete with facts, figures and suggestions.

Among other things Mr. Pedley spoke of was the great need of storing flood waters. He said that if only forty per cent of the flood waters were stored the saving to streams would be incalculable. Two reasons were given why the water question should be attended to. The first was that proper attendance to flood waters in the canyons would minimize the damage to streams. The second was value of saving the water for irrigation purposes in the hot summer months.

The rain waters should be distributed among the gravel beds, said Mr. Pedley. A curious thing mentioned by the engineer was that, comparatively speaking, more water came down the river from the Santa Ana canyon during the recent rains of this spring than was the case earlier in the winter, the reason for this being that the gravel lands had soaked up all the water possible.

Engineer Pedley's address proved so instructive and interesting to all present at the meeting that it was decided to have it prepared in pamphlet form for distribution.

PROHIBITION WRIT WAS FILED TODAY

A petition for a writ of prohibition has been filed against J. S. Howard, Justice of the Peace at Anaheim. W. A. Franz is the petitioner. He represents in the petition that Justice Howard rendered judgment against him (Franz) in favor of Henry Husmann (for $299.64, interest and costs). He also represents that thereupon he entered his objection to the jurisdiction of the court and demanded that the Justice dismiss the action.

Husmann then filed with Howard an amended complaint and Howard overruled Franz's objection that Justice Howard's court had no jurisdiction of the subject of the action. Franz wants a writ of prohibition to restrain the justice's court from taking any further action in the trial of Husmann versus Franz.

The case is Dismisssed

To Quiet Title

Suit to quiet title to land at Olive has been brought by A. E. Koepsel and Walter Eden against Joseph Watson as administrator of the estate of Rose Putnam. L. A. West is attorney for the plaintiffs. There will probably be no contest in the action.

Case is Dismisssed

An action brought by H. P. Christensen against Lydia and C. E. Torrey has been dismissed on the request of the plaintiff, represented by Attorneys Scarborough & Forgy and S. M. Reinhause. Judgment asked was $306.31 on notes. Attachment papers were issued, but dismissal followed and no return on the writ.

For Administration

Mrs. Jessie David of Orange has petitioned for letters of administration upon the estate of her husband, Charles H. David, deceased. The estate consists of three acres, worth $6,000.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY FOR THIS CITY

Seems Certain California Mutual Company Will Have
Headquarters Here

It is now quite certain that Santa Ana will secure the principal headquarters of the California Mutual Life Insurance company, J. P. and Arthur E. Van Dozer, representatives of the company, which is now located in San Francisco, appeared last night at a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and reported that all but about forty of the 200 policy holders necessary to secure a state charter had been secured.

The Van Dozer brothers were in Santa Ana about a year ago and transacted, at that time, an amount of business connected with insurance matters. They met Mr. W. A. Zimmerman, who spoke to the two men about the proposition of getting a mutual life insurance company to locate here. The brothers returned to San Francisco, bearing in mind the suggestion made by Mr. Zimmerman. The Commerce president's suggestion eventually bore fruit, for the Van Dozer brothers appeared before the Chamber of Commerce some time ago and stated, that if the matter were given proper local support, the headquarters of the insurance company they represented would be located here.

The Chamber, at last night's meeting, heartily endorsed the movement. All the Commerce members realize the tremendous advantage that would accrue to the city should the company become established here.

The California Mutual Life Insurance is strictly a life company and there is no bonding scheme in connection with it, and no stock for sale.

Aside from benefits that Santa Ana would derive the benefit to the state would be considerable as, by virtue of the company's being a state concern, many millions of dollars would be kept in California each year—money which would otherwise go out of the state.

arino Nicasio, two of the performers in

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Thickness

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.—Advertisement.

BATTLE WITH TURTLE AT SAN JUAN

Thrilling Fight With Sea Monster Nearly Costs One Man His Life

MEN ABOARD FLORENCE LOSE THEIR GAME

Unusual Method Used in Attempt to Bag Big Amphibian

The ocean off San Juan last Sunday was the scene of one of the most thrilling and unusual battles ever known to have occurred anywhere in Southern California waters. A giant turtle put up a terrific and successful struggle for his liberty against three determined men in a boat. The hard-shelled monster of the deep managed to get away but not until he had almost caused the drowning of one of the men.

Captain Palmer, of Newport Beach, with a crew of two, aboard the launch Florence, caught sight of the turtle early Sunday morning. Turtles are extremely rare in the waters off Orange county and for this reason Captain Palmer made up his mind to capture this particular specimen.

The method most commonly used to bag turtles is to navigate alongside and then either to harpoon or spear the amphibian. Another way, that used by the South Sea Islanders, is for one of a boat's crew to dive into the water and, after swimming up to the turtle, to affix a rope to one of the reptile's feet. The turtle is then towed alongside the boat, when it becomes a comparatively easy matter to dispatch the game.

Captain Palmer decided to use the latter method. Accordingly one of his crew, one Louie, was detailed to dive off and fasten a rope to the turtle. Louie tied the rope around his midriff, dove off, and, with a few lusty strokes, brought himself within easy access of the turtle. It was but the work of a moment to tie the rope to one of the turtle's legs and then Louie gave the signal to "Haul away!"

The men on the boat "took a strain" on the rope and soon the monster began moving towards the Florence. Louie, thinking that to be towed back to the boat would be infinitely easier than to swim back, caught hold of the line near the turtle and allowed himself to be pulled through the water by the two men in the boat.

All went well until the turtle came alongside. In some manner, when Louie started to climb aboard, so that he might help the other two in hauling the turtle aboard, he became entangled with the turtle, which, though having remained comparatively passive up until this time, now began to show unmistakable signs of fight. The sides of the Florence are quite high and this was the reason why Louie was not hauled aboard as expeditiously as might have been; and this was also the reason why he soon found himself struggling, almost helplessly, with the unwieldy bulk of the marine colossus.

Captain Palmer and Charles Swall, the other member of the Florence's crew, were suddenly horrified to see that Louie was caught beneath the turtle. For a moment Palmer and Swall stood motionless, gazing with horror-stricken fascination upon the sight before them—a terrible, swimming and indistinguishable vortex of seething sea, in which the raging turtle was entirely at home and the complete master of the rapidly failing Louie, who was but rarely to be seen as he carried on his futile struggle against the savage monster.

Captain Palmer dared not shoot. Harpooning was also out of the question—the danger to the man in the water was too great. Yet something had to be done and that something quickly. Louie was becoming more and more exhausted. Swall did the only thing possible under the circumstances. He dived off the launch and swam to Louie's rescue.

For several moments after coming to his assistance Swall tried to help Louie and at the same time to keep from losing the turtle. Swall soon saw, however, that this was impossible. To save the drowning man the turtle would have to be turned loose. With great reluctance Captain Palmer called to Swall to loosen the rope from the turtle's foot.

It looked as though both rescuer and rescued would fall victims to the angry power of the sea monster. Swall's task was especially difficult as he had virtually to support Louie and at the same time try to unfasten the rope.

For what seemed hours to Captain Palmer the men struggled in the water. It really took but a very short time for Swall to accomplish his

A capacity house witnessed the Santa Ana Athletic club smoker Wednesday night. The large crowd was characterized by an entire lack of boisterousness and the roughhouse tactics often found were entirely absent. The seven good cards on the program were all masterful exhibitions of their art and many times brought the audience to its feet.

In the wrestling Kendall won from Weber in two straight falls. This was somewhat of a surprise and was a real audience pleaser. The fans present Wednesday night are all hoping that these two boys will get together again soon.

Spain and Clark both gave creditable accounts of themselves, while Osterman and Houghton put up one of the fastest bouts of the evening. Taylor and Heinrichs met in a fast bout in which neither gave any ground—it was a real toe to toe contest.

Reed of Anaheim easily outpointed Reyes of El Modena, while Lee Crooks won in the same manner from George Dempsey. Both were good bouts and at many times it was somewhat of a question of doubt as to who would be the winner.

In the main event Benny Palmer and Joe White gave one of the finest and fastest exhibitions ever witnessed in the city. It was a real live bout from the word go and would have been a credit to any organization indulging in theistic sport. The way the little fellows handled themselves would make Joe Rivers and his crowd look sick. From start to finish there was not a dull or inactive moment. Both boys were trained to perfection and when the gong rang out at the end it was all too soon. The decision of a draw was well received and many expressed the desire to see the boys meet again.

Billy Hart of the Western A. C. of Los Angeles and Mike Doll, also of Los Angeles were introduced before the main event.

task, but so dangerous was it and so fraught with uncertainty that to the anxious watcher aboard the launch it seemed as though both men would lose their lives.

At last Swall succeeded in loosening the line. The victorious turtle swam away and with the assistance of Swall, Louie was brought aboard, more dead than alive.

County High School Championship to Be Decided at Mother Colony

SHALLENBERGER IS TO PITCH FOR POLY HIGH

Local School Expects to Send Over Record-Breaking Delegation

The pry-off game for the championship of Orange county between Orange and Santa Ana Polytechnic high schools is to be played tomorrow afternoon at Anaheim. No series of games ever played in the county has aroused one-half the enthusiasm that has been evinced since the beginning of the present series. Starting at the foot of the list the Santa Ana boys finally worked themselves up to within one of first place. To have defeated the Orange aggregation in "two straight" is an achievement of which the locals may indeed be proud.

Shallenberger will do the honors on the mound for Poly tomorrow. This heavier's twirls have increased in quality in every game he has pitched so far and the fans have reason to think that he will show his usual increase of improvement during the game tomorrow.

As far as known the line-up, other than Shallenberger pitching will be the same as that used in Wednesday's game.

It is expected that Poly will send over to Anaheim tomorrow one of the biggest delegations that ever went away from here to root for the local school. The crowd at Anaheim should be a record-breaker.

METHODS IN CASE OF MOBILIZATION

Captain J. L. McBride of Company L, has received from Adjutant General Forbes at Sacramento, a large folio of instructions to be used in the event of mobilization for volunteer service. The orders are complete to the last detail and only go to show with what exactness and precision the heads of the militia plan all things pertaining to the conduct of this branch of the military.

Upon call by the President for the services of the National Guard of California in time of war a telegram will be sent to the commanding officers of the troops to be mobilized, headed "Mobilization Orders."

This telegram will contain the official orders for the assembling of troops in their armories, and the orders will be compiled with at once.

Following this, regimental, squadron, and separate battalion commanders will issue further instructions, as directed, relative to the assembling of the organizations of their respective commands and preparations for mobilizing.

Within twenty-four hours after the receipt of the mobilization order company, troop and battery commanders will telegraph their respective commanding officers the number of the men members of the company present, the number absent and the number of recruits secured.

The instructions also state that an accurate record must be kept of the time each man reports or is enlisted.

Care must be exercised in recording men's names to avoid errors in spelling and in initials, as such errors may later be attended by results detrimental to the interests of the men concerned.

The junior officer of each organization must begin recruiting his company to war strength immediately upon receipt of mobilization orders.

Provision is made for the subsistence of the command while at home station, 75 cents per day per man being authorized for this purpose.

Keep yourself above suspicion at all times. Avoid stopping at the same hotel with players. Keep out of saloons. Late hours and drinking or gambling will not be tolerated."

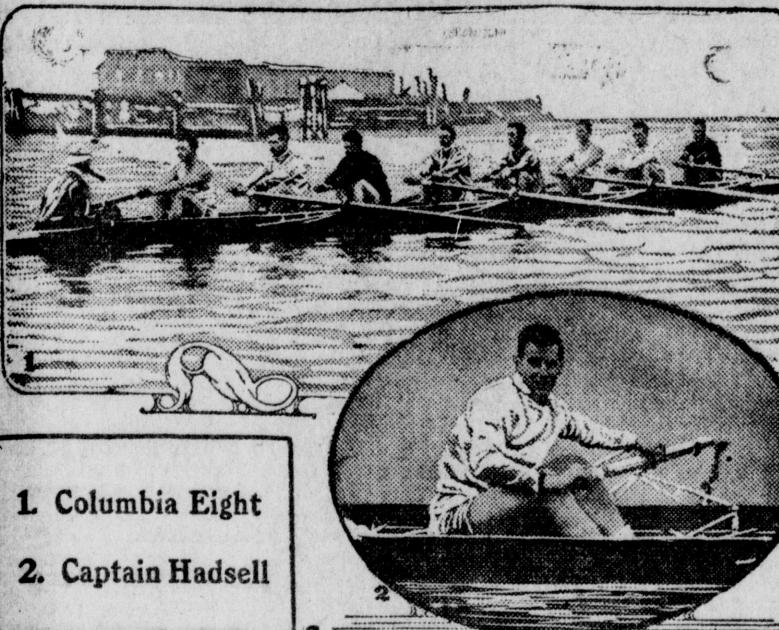

Another order is: "Do not under any circumstances use profanity to player or spectator. Maintain the dignity of your position at all times. Cultivate an even temperament and do not be severe one day and easy going the next."

The instructions sent to Captain McBride conclude with hints as to the most advantageous methods of wagon transportation, methods of loading, etc.

THE LATEST GOLF STORY.

South Africa Has Kangaroo That Caddies and Is Learning Game—Ed Barrow Issues Some Don'ts For Umpires—Matty Feels the Touch of Shame—New Strong Man.

Manager McGraw recently paid a great tribute to Fletcher. "I wouldn't swap him for any shortstop in the National league, even Wagner," he said.

"Fletcher is getting better every year. He covers a tremendous stretch of territory and is good for sensational plays every day. But his value does not end in extraordinary defense. He is one of my pacemakers on the offense. He is a hard and timely hitter and runs bases like a jack rabbit.

"A club considers itself fortunate if it has a brilliant fielding shortstop, even if he is shy in hitting, but when a club has one who combines expertise in fielding with uncommon hitting ability then it has a jewel."

"I remember that I was criticised for not benching Fletcher in the world's series with Boston. He was young then and nervous and didn't play up to his usual standard. He made errors, but I kept him in anyway. Had I benched him I would have taken his courage away from him, and he would have been worthless to me. I think my policy was right, for he has developed into the best shortstop in the league."

Don'ts for umpires is the latest stunt to be tried out by Edward G. Barrow, president of the International league. He is also going to compel them to turn in daily reports of games.

He has issued spacious blanks which must be filled in with all the details of games. There is a large blank space for recording any trouble with players and the officials must tell just what the offending players said and did.

On the back of the blank Barrow has a long list of instructions to umpires, which he will enforce to the letter. In all there are thirty-six paragraphs of instructions.

One reads: "Do not talk baseball on street cars or around your hotel. Never give an opinion as to the merits of any player or club or as to the probable outcome of a game or pennant race. Keep yourself above suspicion at all times. Avoid stopping at the same hotel with players. Keep out of saloons. Late hours and drinking or gambling will not be tolerated."

Another order is: "Do not under any circumstances use profanity to player or spectator. Maintain the dignity of your position at all times. Cultivate an even temperament and do not be severe one day and easy going the next."

The locals will play Redondo, at Redondo, Sunday, May 24, and on Sunday, May 31, the Silverwoods, of Los Angeles, at the local ball park. Other than these games no arrangements have been made, though "Pop" Deck is now trying to get a series of games with the Harris & Franks, of Los Angeles. Pop realizes that he has a fast team and he wants to put his Stags against teams worthy of their mettle.

The ball bugs who have seen the Stags perform at the Moose ball garden have gotten their money's worth at every game played so far. If the astlered nine keeps on going at the rate it has started it is bound to become one of the fastest in the southern part of the state.

The line-up for Sunday's game will be the same as the one used in the last game, i. e., Brown, p.; McGaffey, c.; Luxembourg, 1b.; Walters, 2b.; Shultz, 3b.; Kelley, rf.; Freeman, cf.; West, lf.

The new man in the right garden made a big hit with the fans last Sunday. Kelley played all over his territory and in some that wasn't his. And one of the best things about his work was that he generally managed to connect with the spheroids that came his way. Kelley will bear watching. His work would do credit to any semi-pro team in the country.

There is not a man on the Stag team who isn't taking a lot of intelligent interest in the game. You never see a player by himself in his spare moments. He is generally surrounded by one or two others and invariably they are discussing baseball. Every player is showing interest in the game from a scientific standpoint.

Signals and inside ball generally, which the Stags realize are needed to help put a team in the front ranks, are being mastered by the exhibition of lots of enthusiasm on the part of each player.

It is said that the El Monte team is composed of a lot of rattling good players and will give the locals a hard tussle to win. However, the Stags are not doing much worrying—they are quite prepared to go up against teams that have lots of A-1 material.

To provide increased and more comfortable seating facilities at the Moose ball park, work began today to alter and put a roof over the present bleachers and to erect additional bleachers to the east of the stand already up.

A score board, about twenty feet in length, will be put up at the extreme eastern edge of the lot, just off the third base foul line. The board is being furnished by A. E. Hawley.

STEVENS MAKING GOOD WITH FRESNO

Carl Stevens, the young catcher, who got his first experience in the arts of receiving here in Santa Ana, and who is now playing with the Fresno Tigers, comes in for a good send-off in the Fresno Republican of Friday, May 8. The write-up of the game with Stockton is headed: "Single by Stevens Scores Pickford With Final Run."

Says the Republican:

"It was the hardest struggle of the season, the conflict going within one out of full thirteen innings before Stevens smashed a single to right with the bases full and brought over the run that made the count 4 to 3 in favor of the Tigers. Two men followed close behind Pickford, and had more runs been needed they would have been present."

The final score of the game showed Stevens five times at bat, with two base hits, seven put-outs and one assist to his credit.

CALIFORNIA LEADS UNITED STATES IN AUTO OWNERSHIP

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—On a basis of population California leads any section of the United States in the ownership of automobiles. The latest figures, compiled under the new automobile law, show that in this state one person in every 27 is the owner of a motor car. In New York state only one person in every 89 is the owner of an automobile.

The figures which establish the lead of California in auto ownership are for motor cars that are actually in commission, with no depulsions, and are taken from the registration, which to date shows 94,718 cars in the state. The New York total, figured from the end of 1913 and adding the normal percentage of increase each month would show the Empire State to have about 120,000 machines in actual commission.

In a table brought to an approximate total in each state to date, by adding the percentage of growth, it is shown that next to California the greatest per capita ratio is in Nebraska, where one in 37 persons own automobiles.

ALTER LAWS, COMMERCIAL FISHERS SAY

Letter From Protective Association President Anent Changes Desired

Following is a letter from R. J. Shafer, president of the Fishermen's Protective Association:

"Newport Beach, Cal., May 14, 1914.
Editor Register:

"Dear Sir:—In reply to your phone message this morning, I beg to submit the following:

"There can be several changes in the present fish and game laws that would benefit commercial fishermen and not work a hardship on the sportsman. There is at present a law forbidding trammel nets less than one mile from shore. These nets do not catch any game fish and catch halibut, which are not classed as game fish. Therefore the law is unjust as there are about nine months of the year when the halibut are less than one mile from shore.

"Another law is the closed season on surf fish—yellow fins and spot fins. These are fish which no man ever planted or hatched. God Almighty created them and put them in the ocean for all mankind and there are countless numbers of them. In seeking for smelt, which are one of the best fish for market, we sometimes get surf fish in the nets, for which we are liable to arrest. Now we want to meet the sporting class half way and have an open season on surf fish, the same as upon other protected fish, namely the greatest food fish—the salmon, which are hatched by the state and federal governments and upon which there is an open season each year.

"Another law is the prohibiting of commercial fishing within three miles of Catalina Island. It is unjust, as it is class legislation and puts sport above living and livelihood, and therefore deprives men, women and children of their living. We, the commercial fishermen, believe the state has a perfect right to say the size of mesh nets which shall be used, but do not believe it is right to sell fishermen licenses to fish in water of the Pacific ocean and then turn around and say, 'You shall not fish less than one mile from shore.'

"One other law is the charge of $10 licenses from American citizens. It is an imposition on American citizenship as it places foreigners on an equal footing with citizens and therefore does not tend to make foreigners become citizens."

"As president of the Fishermen's Protective Association I think I am voicing the thoughts of fishermen and the people at large, as the fish are the only meat food that will combat the great beef trust."

"Yours truly,
R. J. SHAFER."

DISTURBER IV. A SPEEDY BOAT

James A. Pugh's Harmsworth Cup Entry Good For Seventy Miles an Hour.

The Disturber IV., with which James A. Pugh will attempt to lift the Harmsworth trophy, emblematic of the world's motorboat championship, at Cowes, England, next September, will make better than sixty-five and possibly run as high as seventy-two miles an hour, according to the manufacturer who is building the power plant for the Pugh boat.

The patterns have been made and the first cylinder has been cast. Altogether seventy-five cylinders will be cast and the best of these chosen for the two engines with which the boat will be equipped. The rest of the cylinders will be kept in case anything goes wrong with any of the cylinders first in the boat.

"The engines will turn over 1,800 per minute," said the builder. "This will give 1,600 horsepower, which will drive the boat around seventy miles an hour. Of course, if conditions are the most favorable, that can be had, this means that the craft will go over the water faster than any boat ever built, and then some. The crank shafts will be three inches in diameter, and we know this will be more than enough to sustain the tremendous strain to which they will be put."

"There will be six distinct motors, three to each shaft in the boat. Each of these motors will be supplied with two magneto and one carburetor. The magneto will fire two plugs each, and this will make it doubly certain that all motors will be kept in commission at all times."

EXPECTS MUCH OF WEAVER

Callahan Looks For Shortstop to Prove League Sensation.

Big things are expected of George "Buck" Weaver for the coming season. The White Sox shortstop is being touted as the coming sensation of the American league, and unless the predictions of Manager Callahan and his assistant, "Kid" Gleason, go wrong the young lad with the broad smile is going to rank head and shoulders above his mates and others when it comes to hitting the old pill outside of the big green diamond.

Right now a good hitter is the crying need of the Chicago club. It has been a need for several years and about the only thing that has kept Callahan's men away from the top of the column. Weaver is not expected to develop into a Joe Tinker or Eddie Collins so far as slugging is concerned, but he is counted upon to assist materially in the burling of the "hitless wonder" sobriquet that has been hanging to the Sox for these many seasons.

Few fans know that for the last two months of the 1913 season Weaver batted in the neighborhood of .360. He jumped in the averages to such an extent that he finished at the top of the list in club batting. That he would accomplish this was the prediction made by Gleason at the start of the race in April, so the "Kid's" latest guess must be taken seriously.

There is a reason for Weaver being pegged as a coming hitter. He is what baseball men please to term a "natural batter." He showed this after shifting last spring from right to left handed hitting except against southpaw pitching. This is another feature not to be overlooked. Weaver is death on off side hurlers, and a man in the cleanup position with this ability means much to a ball club.

Callahan claims the world tour made a different player of Weaver. The shortstop hobnobbed with such gents as Mike Doolan and Larry Doyle and from them learned a lot about the fine points of the defensive game. Doolan is probably as great a player as ever flirted with the left side of the key stone sick and fully capable of giving valuable advice to young members of the profession.

Cornell Starts Gridiron Practice. Cornell has begun spring football practice with twenty-eight men on the field. On account of the fact that Coach Sharpe is busy with the baseball team Captain Jack O'Hearn will have charge of the practice. There will be no attempt at scrimmaging, but a great deal of time will be spent in practicing the forward pass, handling punts and in general limbering up exercises. Among the members of last year's team to report besides O'Hearn are Collier, Mallory, Philippi and Shetton.

ASSOCIATION OF TROUT MEN MEETS

CHALMERS TROPHY MEN APPOINTED

T. M. Hill returned last night from Los Angeles, where he attended, at the Cafe Bristol, the meeting of the Southern California Trout Association. This was practically the first meeting held by the association, and the discussions held were productive of many valuable suggestions. A state hatchery in the southern part of the state was considered highly desirable by the men present. It was decided to appoint a committee to report once a month on trout fishing in the various southern streams.

WHILE OTHERS
QUALITY WE ARE GUARANTEEING IT

Ren Mulford, Jr., of Cincinnati, chairman of the Chalmers Trophy Commission, has announced the names of the newspaper men who will serve on this commission for the season of 1914. The Chalmers Trophy Commission is a jury of newspaper men who annually select the player in both the National and American Leagues who has been of most value to his club during the pennant race, and to the two men selected by this commission Hugh Chalmers of Detroit presents an automobile.

The Chalmers Trophy Commission for 1914 is as follows: I. E. Sanborn, Chicago Tribune; Tim Murnane, Boston Globe; Abe Yager, Brooklyn Eagle; Jack Ryder, Cincinnati Enquirer; H. G. Salisberg, Detroit News; Grantland Rice, New York Mail; Ralph S. Davis, Pittsburgh Press; C. C. Isaminger, Philadelphia North American; Sid C. Keener, St. Louis Times; J. Edward Grillo, Washington Star; Henry Edwards, Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Last year an Orange county boy, Walter Johnson, was awarded the Chalmers trophy car, while his nearest competitor for the honor was another Orange county player, Gay Cravath.

HANS WAGNER SLIPPED ONE OVER ON CRUISE

Walter Cruise, who hails from Jacksonville and is getting a trial with the St. Louis Cardinals, looks like a real ball player, and when he goes back to Florida he can tell the folks he studied under Wagner, says the Sporting News. At any rate he learned a valuable lesson about the trickery of the famous Teuton from Carnegie, Pa.

It happened in the seventh inning of a close game in the Cards-Pirates series. Jack Miller was taking a good lead off second. Two were out. Young Cruise lined a beauty into right field. Mitchell took the ball on the bound and fired it home. Miller scored on the hit and Cruise cantered for second.

Mitchell's heave went wide and also took a bad bound out of Gibson's reach. The big backstop chased to the players' bench and rushed back to the position to try to see the Florida recruit tearing across. To Gibby's astonishment Cruise was standing on second, dusting off his uniform and thinking he had outwitted Wagner.

Hans, however, had been playing shadow ball all by himself. So well did he enact the role of trapping thrown ball that he attracted the runner's attention from the actual play. The Dutchman tagged Cruise with empty fist and commenced an argument. The young left fielder declared he was safe, but Hans insisted he was out. Jimmy Viox joined in the argument which ended when Gibby arrived at the plate. Then the laugh settled itself upon Walter Cruise.

The sly old German had tricked him out of a chance to score on a wild throw that was not charged up.

I have 100 acres of land in the San Joaquin Valley, one and a quarter miles from a live little town with good schools, churches, water system, electric lights, and phone service. The land is a fine silt soil, very uniform, with no alkali or hard-pan spots. Is now in crop, part of it has a barley crop estimated at twenty sacks per acre, 15 acres alfalfa, 20 acres of fine sugar beets—can contract beets for five years. One share of water per acre. No better land in the valley for the price, $125 per acre, will divide into 40 or 60 acres. Will take clean, clear cottage property at fair value for part or all the purchase price. Courtesy to agents.

Drop me a line by mail arranging for interview. I am anxious to sell my home and will price it right. If interested come to 2220 North Main.

Sporting Briefs of the Week

[By Hal Sheridan]

NEW YORK, May 14.—Britishers claim to be without cheer or hope and effaced by every team in the league last year, are this year being fulfilled.

With Peerless Leader Chance now coming into his own as a reorganizer and driver of ball players, Caldwell is being given the sort of support that puts ambition and love of gore in the heart of a young pitcher with the staff.

Of course, Caldwell had the stuff all the time, but he hadn't much incentive to squeeze it out last year. With the Highlanders fighting like cornered lions to the last announcement by the umpire, Caldwell should this year pile up behind himself a whale of a record. He has certainly started right. In his first two games—against the Athletics and the Red Sox—all those teams could get off no sign of a run.

It was the dashing, slashing defense and attack of Lockett, who met every American, catapulting attack with the same sort of goods, that stopped the Big Four temporarily on several occasions last year, and made them begin all over again. It was Lockett's work more than the work of any two men on the English team which kept the American score down and the English tally up.

To replace Lockett the invaders will have either Lord Wodehouse or Lord Wimburne. Both are great players, but neither can class with Lockett. Neither can hope to stop the Waterbury boys anywhere near as effectively as even Lockett did, unless they have improved eighty percent—and the English enthusiasts don't think either has grown that much.

The American four looks very good. There will be, undoubtedly, the three veterans, Larry and Monte Waterbury, and Devereux Milburn, galloping about the green and swatting the tar out of the ball when the whistle blows. For the fourth position there are Malcolm Stevenson, Phipps, Rene Montague and one or two others, who are less prominently known. Stevenson has "sat in" before and is far from being a slouch at the gladiators game. Phipps and Montague have been playing like Sahara typhoons at practice games this spring and either should show up the stuff it called on to pull a George Washington and repeat the Redcoats.

It's true that few ever pull the come-back stuff with any degree of noise, but Ee-yah Hughie Jennings at the start of this year's race did that thing. With the same pepto and gingerine that he showed when he coped the American League flag he has been going like an oil saturated house afire. As a contemporary aptly put it, Hughie's singeing flash may be awfully hard on the grass sprouts around first base, but it's mighty fine for the National Pastime.

Prophesies that were made for young Ray Caldwell when the Yanks were being mauled, torn, mutilated and effaced by every team in the league last year, are this year being fulfilled.

Turning back to that Detroit rush, there is offered in the situation a mighty good answer to those pessimists and calamity shriekers who have been insisting that because of the big play of the Federals this year, those major league teams which are up against Federal opposition would "be allowed" to go out in front to keep the patronage.

In the American League, Detroit for a long time showed all the class.

There was no Fed opposition in Detroit. In Pittsburgh, despite the fact that the Fed team was being bashed around like a top red headed stepchild by every other team in the Fed League, the Pirates, led by Fred Clarke were galloping away with lots of daylight between them and their nearest competitors the last time we visited the club standings.

If the pessimists were right and the magnates wanted to do a little "fixing," they certainly could have done a far better job of it than they have so far.

The Pacific coast bids fair to keep its place at the head of the column as the producer of high jumpers. After giving us Horine, whose jumping record of 6 feet, 7 inches looked to be good for many years, the coast came right back few weeks ago and showed Eddie Beeson in the Pacific Coast Conference meet. Beeson beat Horine's jump by five-eighths of an inch, which is considerable distance when it's piled on top of 6 feet, 7 inches, and especially if the man who tries to get over it doesn't use a balloon or an aeroplane.

ASSOCIATION OF TROUT MEN MEETS

T. M. Hill returned last night from Los Angeles, where he attended, at the Cafe Bristol, the meeting of the Southern California Trout Association. This was practically the first meeting held by the association, and the discussions held were productive of many valuable suggestions. A state hatchery in the southern part of the state was considered highly desirable by the men present. It was decided to appoint a committee to report once a month on trout fishing in the various southern streams.

Sporting Briefs of the Week

[By Hal Sheridan]

NEW YORK, May 14.—Britishers claim to be without cheer or hope over their chances of turning the tables on America in the International Polo Cup series next month at Meadowbrook. Reason for the chunks of wood which can be cut with a knife wherever English poloists meet to discuss the outlook is that Captain Vivian Lockett will not be at No. 3 position when the fracas opens.

With Peerless Leader Chance now coming into his own as a reorganizer and driver of ball players, Caldwell is being given the sort of support that puts ambition and love of gore in the heart of a young pitcher with the stuff.

NEWSY NEWS FROM NEW YORK

By Carlton Ten Eyck

NEW YORK, May 14.—Those "I Won't Workers" who recently invaded some of New York's churches demanding food and places to sleep have been answered by the Rev. Dr. Percy Grant, of the Church of the Ascension, in telling fashion. One of the charges the L. W. W. raiders made against the churches was that they were allowed to lie vacant except occasional, stated intervals, whilst the city's poor slept in the open and the cold.

Dr. Grant is going to throw his church open to the poor whenever it is not in use for religious services. His plan should be of the deepest interest to every clergyman, priest, churchman and to that great body of individuals who have no "church home."

On certain nights of the week the Church of the Ascension is thrown open and a program of educational moving pictures and lectures, some illustrated, is produced. There is singing by the church choir and by soloists. The music is carefully chosen by a committee of social workers who include all sects—Jews, Protestants of all denominations, etc. This is done in order that no part of the program is sectarian.

The moving pictures and the lectures are mostly travel. Others are instructive along various other lines such as home-making, garden building, etc. Pictures of historic interest as an incentive to patriotism also are shown. Admission to these free entertainments are by card. The cards are distributed through the "social workers' committee," care being taken to distribute the invitations that one person in a neighborhood does not have the privilege of attending twice.

CHANGES ARE PROPOSED IN GAME LAWS

Secretary Bailey will discuss the entire system of changes at tonight's meeting.

Tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock in the Bullard block, Secretary Bailey will meet with those interested in changes in the fishing laws and at 10:30 tomorrow morning in room 522, Title Insurance building, he will meet with those of the Sixth District of which Los Angeles is a part, who are interested in changes in the hunting laws.

Of the proposed changes already decided upon one of the most important provides for the appointment and regulation of a State Board of Fish and Game Commissioners, the new provision intending a reconstruction of the fish and game plan in the state.

To Abolish Licenses

The initiative further proposes to "abolish hunting and fishing licenses for citizens to hunt and fish in the country in which they reside."

"To forbid the baiting of ponds for furling wild ducks and other water fowl, and use of nets and traps for hunting game."

The third clause "permits transportation companies, dealers, hotels and restaurants to have in their possession any game legally killed."

"Fourth—Closed season for five years for elk, antelope, female deer, spotted fawn, mountain sheep, rail, grouse and sage hen."

"Fifth—Reduce the bag limit on desert and mountain quail, snipe, plover and curlew from twenty per day to fifteen on quail and ten on the others."

"Sixth—At least one federal forest reserve in each game district to be made a state game preserve for refuge and propagation."

"Seventh—Remove restrictions as to the use of nets for fishing in the ocean within three miles of the shore."

Meetings to Be Held

Certain important changes have already been agreed upon and will appear in the initiative petition. Other changes will be discussed tonight at a meeting of the Sixth District department of the Protective Association which will be held in Elks hall, San Pedro, at 8 o'clock.

Breathe Freely! Clears Stuffed-up Inflamed Nose and Head and Stops Catarrhal Discharge. Cures Dull Headache.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it. Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing; soothing relief comes immediately.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.—Advertisement.

SOX HAVE $107,000 WORTH OF CRIPPLES.

Chicago's White Sox ball players already hold one record for 1914. Comiskey's club has more crippled baseball talent than any other team in the game. Following is a list of the Sox cripples and what they would be worth to any big league club in their best condition: Ed Walsh, $5,000; Ray Schalk, $30,000; Larry Chappell, $20,000; Red Kuhn, $4,000; Silk Kavanaugh, $3,000. According to this estimate, these five players in condition to do their best would be worth $107,000.

WENDELL NOT GOING ABROAD

Champion Hurdler Spikes Story That He Intends Taking Trip.

Jim Wendell, America's premier hurdler, is not going abroad this summer. The former Wesleyan athlete himself has spiced the story to the effect that he is contemplating a trip to the other side for a match race over the 120 yard high sticks with Anderson, the crack British timber topper. This thing Wendell did in a letter to the New York Athletic club management recently, in which he stated that he will train at Travers Island all summer, competing meanwhile for the Mercury Foot club.

Captain Pilgrim of the N. Y. A. C. in getting a line on his talent for the summer meets, sent word to Wendell, who is teaching school down in Pennsylvania, asking whether or not the intercollegiate champion would be in competition during the coming outdoor season. Wendell's answer came back quickly and it killed off at once the tale that the runner up in the Stockholm Olympic hurdle championship is going abroad in search of glory at the English championships.

RICKY A HITTER.

Browns' Manager May Go to Bat in a Pinch During the Season.

Branch Rickey, college graduate, coach of college phenoms, who this season will tackle the tough job of elevating the Browns out of the cellar, owns a record for the 1913 season. Rickey wound up the last campaign with a batting average of 1.000. It was not made in a regular season battle, but in one of the fall series contests with the Cardinals.

It happened in the seventh of the combats. The Brownie leader chose himself to hit for Pitcher Taylor and whacked out a single off Bob Harmon, who since has been passed over to the Pirates. That was the only time he batted, so he has a perfect average, which is a lot more than other athletes can claim.

Rickey will be a bench manager, like Connie Mack, Johnny McGraw and a good many of the others. But, then, should the occasion require, he may send himself in as a pinch hitter. He always was a good batter and may be able to save many battles with a well placed base hit.

"Sure, I'll bat for a pitcher or weak batter whenever occasion requires," said Rickey. "But I am not going to get in the game regularly—just occasionally, when I think I might come through with a hit that will win the game for us."

That the leader for the Browns always was a good batter is shown by the record he made in the minors and majors. He started his professional career back in 1903 with the Lamar club of the Iowa-South Dakota league. The latter part of the same season he went to Dallas in the Texas league, where he played in 1904 and 1905.

He had a trial in the big ring before finally sticking. That was in the fall of 1904, when he had a three weeks' stay with Cincinnati, but was sent back to the Texas league. In 1905 he did such good work that he was drafted by the White Sox, but before getting a chance with Comiskey's team he was traded to the Browns for Catcher Roth.

Then he started the campaign of 1907 with the Browns, but was sent to New York in exchange for Joe Yeager. He retired that same season, though, owing to illness and later took up coaching the athletes at Michigan, starting in 1908. He did that every season until made leader of the Browns.

Rickey is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan college, where he played both baseball and football and made good in both.
